The Striders opened the 2017 indoor track season in fine fashion at the All-Comer meet in Boulder, as they established seven new club indoor records. Brandon Hills was a double winner, taking the 11-12 boy's 60 meters in a new club record time of 8.55. He earlier won the long jump with a leap of 15'2". Hannah Turpin took the 11-12 girl's long jump with a jump of 12'10". She also set a new club record in the 60 meters with a time of 8.94 while finishing second. Kobe Dooley was a double club record setter as he won the 10 and under 200 meters in 32.94 and finished second in the 60 meters in a record time of 9.50. Brandon Williams won the 13-14 boy's 800 meters in 2:34.37 to break a 20 year old club record Jahzara Davis set club records in the 13-14 girl's 60 meters with a time of 8.37 and the long jump with an effort of 12' 9 1/2".

Kobe Dooley negotiates the backstretch as he won the 10 and under boy's 200 meters in a new club record.

Brandon Williams rounds the turn in the 13-14 boy's 800 meters in a new club record.

Jahzara Davis sprints down the straightaway in the 13-14 girl's 60 meters as she set a new club record.
