MOYA WINS THREE GOLDS; CHARLES, WILLIAMS TAKE DOUBLE GOLD AT THE NITE MOVES INVITATIONAL

Natalia Moya works down the straightaway to win the 8 & under girl's 200 meters.

Jasmine Charles approaches the sixth hurdle on her way to winning the 17-18 girl's 100 meter hurdles.

Brandon Williams stays in control of the 15-16 boy's 1500 meters which he won by a step.

Bloomfield Yarbrough IV thrust pass the finish in winning the 9-10 boy's 100 meters.

The Striders travelled to Gateway High School on Sunday, June 3rd to compete in the Nite Moves Invitational and came away with some fine early season performances. Highlighting the Striders attack was the triple gold medal performance by 8 and under sprinter, Natalia Moya. Moya took golds in the 100 meters(17.39), 200 meters (37.14) and the long jump (9' 1/4"). Newcomer, Jasmine Charles added two gold medals to the Striders medal count by winning the 17-18 girl's 100 meter hurdles (15.78) and 400 meters(1:00.52). Brandon Williams led the medal production for the boy's by taking the 800 meters (2:07.17) and the 1500 meters (4:31.27) in the 15-16 boy's division. Broomfield Yarbrough IV took the 9-10 boy's 100 meters in 14.72 while Solomon Latimer won the 13-14 boy's high jump with an effort of 4'9 3/4". His teammate, Joseph Bjegovich, captured the 13-14 boy's shot put with a toss of 28'9 1/4". Aliyah George rounded out the gold medal explosion by winning the 17-18 girl's 200 meters in 25.99. The Striders also captured 4 silver and 10 bronze medals.

Solomon Latimer clearing an earlier height on his way to winning the 13-14 boy's high jump.

Joseph Bjegovich unleashes a fine throw in capturing the 13-14 boy's shot put.
