WOLF CAPTURES LONG JUMP TITLE; DAVIS, HILLS, DOOLEYS & WOLF SET NEW CLUB RECORDS AT MLK MILE HIGH CLASSIC

Myla Wolf captured the 13-14 girls long jump title at the Martin Luther King Mile High Classic.

The Strider tracksters competed in their second meet of the season at the Martin Luther King Mile High Classic held at the Air Force Academy on January 14th.

Leading the way for the Striders was 13-14 division athlete, Myla Wolf, who captured the long with an effort of 13'8 1/4". This was a day of record setting performances by the Strider contingent. Brandon Hill shattered two 13-14 boy's club records in the 60 meters (8.21) and long jump (17'2"). This was the second time this season that Brandon has set new club records in these events. The record setting continued as Collin Wolf eclipsed his week old 10 and under long jump record with a jump of 11'10 1/4" The Dooley brothers took turns setting records as 11-12 boy's division, Kobe Dooley set a new 400 meter record in 1:13.0 while his older brother, Keyshawn claimed the 13-14 division 400 record in a time of 1:03.63. Jahzara Davis rounded out the record setting day with a new 15-16 record in the 60 meter hurdles in a time of 9.47.

Jahzara Davis clears the third hurdle on her way to setting a new club record in the 15-16 girls division 60 hurdles.

Brandon Hills powers down the straightaway enroute to a new club record in the 13-14 boy's 60 meters.

Kobe Dooley works hard down the backstretch on his way to a 11-12 boy's 400 meter record.

Keyshawn Dooley preparing for the 13-14 boy's 400 meters where he set a new club record.
